A musical staff in treble clef showing a sequence of notes: G4 (quarter), A4 (quarter), B4 (quarter), C5 (quarter), D5 (half), E5 (quarter), F#5 (quarter), G5 (quarter), A5 (quarter), B5 (quarter), C6 (quarter), D6 (half). The notes are mostly quarter notes, except for a half note at measure 5 and another half note at the end. There are no accidentals shown on the notes themselves.

The first staff of music is written on a single line with a treble clef. It contains a sequence of eighth notes: G4, A4, B4, C5, B4, A4, G4, followed by a quarter rest. This pattern is repeated six times across the staff, with the final measure ending with a double bar line.

The first staff of music begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notation consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures containing beamed sixteenth notes. The staff ends with a double bar line.

The first system of the musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is written on a single five-line staff. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody consists of the following notes: a whole rest, followed by a quarter note G4, a quarter note F4, a quarter note E4, and a quarter note D4. This is followed by a quarter note C4, a quarter note B3, a quarter note A3, and a quarter note G3. A double bar line with repeat dots follows. The melody then continues with a quarter note G3, a quarter note F3, a quarter note E3, and a quarter note D3. This is followed by a quarter note C3, a quarter note B2, a quarter note A2, and a quarter note G2. A final double bar line with repeat dots concludes the system.
